Hi Bill,

Sorry for the delay - I've been completely out of touch during our honeymoon. But we're both back to reality now that we're back at work. We had an amazing experience - thank you so much for everything. Allen was awesome, extremely flexible and accommodating. We had much less time to actually dance at the end than we had hoped (because speeches went longer than we expected) but he did a great job of playing a fun mix to get the crowd going. We were so happy with everything and again, really appreciate everything you guys did to make our day so wonderful and memorable.

I also wanted to apologize for any problems Kim Floyd might have caused either you or Allen. I was being completely sheltered from any drama, so I don't know much about what happened. But I heard that he might've gotten a "talking to" about something prior to the reception, and that he was waiting at The Hamilton for a while for the doors to even open. She has been less than pleasant to work with on our end, so I'm just sorry if you guys experienced any of that on your end.

Please let me know if there's anything we can do - writing a review, providing a glowing recommendation to any future bride & grooms, etc.

Thanks again,
Julie

Hi Julie,

Congratulations.

I just wanted to follow up and see how everything went on Saturday. Allen told me you were a pleasure to work for.
